THE LAND OF THE UKULELE

MAY 13 1919 ✓

A Visit to the Hawaiian Islands

✓ Produced by Ford Motor Company ✓

- 2 We're off! Bound for the Cross Roads of the Pacific. Comfortably quartered on the palatial steamer Great Northern we bid adieu to San Francisco and her gay farewells.
- 3 The Hawaiian Island territory of the United States consists of a chain of Islands in the North Pacific 700 miles in length.
- 4 There's an old saying that everything that goes up must come down. Albeit the gentle Pacific ruthless in its reversal of the law of gravity elects that everything that goes down must come up!

FORD EDUCATIONAL WEEKLY NO.151

- 5 Five days at sea and, Land Ho!
Our good ship docks at Honolulu on the Island of Oahu.
- 6 And this is Honolulu where to be exact Captain Cook landed just 141 years ago.
- 7 Dainty little Japanese folks always smiling and quaintly gowned in gay kimonos while young Mikados ride merrily behind.
- 8 Our friends from Japan and there are 90,000 of them in the Hawaiian Island
Group fill many important industrial activities -
A Japanese fruit store.

FORD EDUCATIONAL WEEKLY NO.151

- 9 Making "Leis" a wreath made from flowers and paper and worn by the Hawaiians signifying goodwill and friendship.
- 10 And every morning the smiling Japanese vegetable man leaves fresh fare for your table.
- 11 The Capitol of Honolulu and previously the palace of Queen Liliuokalani.
- 12 The Judiciary Building housing the courts and department of education.
- 13 This isn't Old King Cole but Good King Kamehameha who years ago captured Honolulu and the surrounding Islands.
- 14 And here is the old Statue Worshiper, a familiar sight to Hawaiian tourists. He's waiting for King Kamehameha to come to life - he's been waiting 25 years and no sign of life yet.
